

The Consumer Bankers Association is misguided in their attempt to challenge the no-call list. I enrolled in the Indiana no-call list because I don't want to be harassed at all hours. What gives them the right to disturb me when I'm not interested in their product?? Please don't let them destroy my right to privacy. Thank you.